Testimony /Quote/ Poem/Inspiration/News

"A dear elderly Quaker lady, distinguished for her youthful looks, was asked what she used to preserve her appearance. She replied sweetly, 'I use for the lips, Truth; for the voice, Prayer; for the eyes, Pity; for the hand, Charity; for the figure, Uprightness; and for the heart, Love.' "

More on Continual Communion:

Continual Prayer. "Pray without ceasing." In English, or in your countries' language, or in the Spirit. Out loud, or within your mind and heart as you go along in your day.

Continual listening. It is a two way conversation.

Word Study

SORROW. "To feel pain of the mind."

The third area Jesus and the Already Completed Work of His Cross overcame. Know what you are free of. Isa. 53:4, Jesus carried our sorrows. He already carried them away, so you do not have to suffer with them. This is the mind area of sickness and pain and confusion that Jesus overcame. Any mind games, wrong beliefs and training (on purpose or accidentally taught by well intentioned immature people in the dark), lies, attitudes, and pathways of lowlife thinking, negativity, lack expectancies, that are not of the Mind of Christ.

Look up sorrow in the concordance or online. There are two kinds of sorrow. One is God's kind that brings you to repentance, the other is the mind enjoying feeding on its self pity and false humility, or in some cases outright pride of thinking they are getting away with something. They are only temporarily disappointed and sidetracked when caught.

Receive the SOUND Mind of Christ by faith after you put all your sorrow into the Cross. Watch for the Power of the Cross release new ideas and attitudes and LOVE in new places for new people. SonLight be! In your understanding today, in Jesus Name, so you can see the Power of the Cross in your personal life and how much He Loves you.

SOUND: healthy, entire, solid, in good condition, profound, free from error, reliable, complete!

Wow! That's a great trade. We give Him our un-healthy, partial, shaky, ratty, messed up, full of errors, un-reliable, in- complete old mindsets, and we receive Jesus' Love, Power, and His Sound Mind. We can't miss this one! Receive, receive, receive!

* Read the Word - Bible too, or listen to tapes. He wants to teach you Himself.

* Invite a family member to take Communion with you this month.

*It would be a help to write down in a notebook what the Lord is revealing to you. He builds on each thing He gives you.

Prayer / needs

Please pray for us in the Body of Christ to Receive what Jesus already did for us and sent it 2006 years ago, and learn how to give what we receive of Him away. Until you receive what is from Him, you really have no substance. Nothing to give but hot air, aggravation, and it profits no one, 1Cor. 13:1-3. With His fullness of Love that passes knowledge in your mind, you are, In Christ, a person of substance. Now you have something to give...to God, yourself, and all people.
