Jesus' Light into all the seasons of our heart

Testimony /Quote/ Poem/Inspiration/News

"He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son,"Rev.21:7.

"As I look at the promises made to those who overcome we should see that God is not establishing some new order or special group which enjoys rights and privileges not accessible to the rest of the saints. This is not the establishing of new promises, but a bringing us back to the same exceeding great and precious promises which are potentially true of everyone who is In Christ. It is not a new foundation, it is a calling us back to the foundation which is ALREADY laid."

I have been blessed by an e-mail of a daily word such as this one above, from Chip Brogden. He bears witness to how I also believe about the Holy Spirit in me also calling people back to the precious Foundation ALREADY laid by Jesus and the Already Completed Work of His Cross. We just need to humble ourselves and RECEIVE. Then release All Good Things He gives us of Himself to others, all to His Credit.To check out his website or subscribe to his daily word, go to: <http://www.theschoolofchrist.org/daily.html>

This month we are focusing on the (Jesus was already bruised for our) iniquity patterns - box. In particular, we are yielding our "reactions" to Him, for Him to become Lord over them. We are receiving /releasing His Higher Christ-like Thoughts & Ways from His Already Completed Work He sent us 2006 years ago which delivers us and heals our bruised places.

† Here is an Iniquity Pattern Example of "Jesus was ALREADY bruised" that we may receive healing...

The Holy Spirit showed me an example of iniquity and I saw He meant people's un-Christ-like habitual reactionary patterns coming out from their old traumas, stemming from their lack of His renewed mind in the area of "reactions". The world, the natural, the carnal, immature Christian, or the devil and his cronies, had taught them and they were automatically reacting in those old low-life thoughts, expectations, suspicions, and ways. If it was simply categorized, I'd say the lack was Agape Divine Love. Rejection is what is inherent in the dark emptiness and automatic when the reality of acceptance in the Belov-ed and His Love from God in us, is lacking. Whether the person is self-righteousness and prideful, or has severe low self esteem and image with false humility, or in the middle saying the old "I'm OK, you're OK." When you receive the truth that God created you in His Love, with His Love, by His Love, for His Love, To Love... Yourself, and Him (the GodHead trio), then you have something to share with all other people. The Love from God In Christ will come forth in your reactions, as some are mentioned in 1Cor.13.

As our song today quotes from Samson's riddle to the Philistines, "Out of the eater comes something to eat, out of the strong comes something sweet." (picture is out of The Picture Bible for children) The Lion that tries to attack and devour has no power, and the Lord's honey pours into us out of the "eater's" attempt instead, Judges 14:14. Our God is the God of Second Chance, Our God is the God of Redemption!

Our family was in a church and I was on the worship team. I had noticed that it seemed as though as many families were going out the back door and not returning as there was new ones coming in. There were comments floating about as someone in each family was being imperfect and therefore un-acceptable. I spoke to the pastor about it. He thought it was just me and my family. Since I saw it, I either was considered the instigator, or complaining and defending my family. Well, I said it was a spirit of rejection and we needed to pray for the church deliverance of it. I fasted 10 days and asked the Lord to do something. I only felt a greater Love for these people after the fast but saw no change. (This was before my deep personal revelation of The Already Completed Work of Jesus' Cross) This person happens to be one of the Lord's Gifts of Mercy (His Divine Forgiveness and Love) to the church- and I notice and am bruised when the opposites are controlling the church and authorities over me. This is why I pray for the SonLight in understanding- so me and everyone sees and knows how much they are Loved- and then in that atmosphere of sacred trust Christ In us can grow to full stature. Big changes for the Kingdom of God can happen inside us, then the church, then the cities, then the world.

Anyways, we were in a Sunday worship time, and the Holy Spirit said clearly to me, "He was already bruised for their iniquities." I told Him I heard Him, but I am not quite sure what iniquity is, nor do I know what He wants me to do with this word from Him. Please teach me.

That week at worship practice, there was a new couple joining us. New to the area, this church, and now the team. She sang, he played guitar. One song was new to us all, and the man with the guitar was working on getting it right, but still missing a few notes. The worship leader made a comment into his microphone to this new team member, that he needs to learn to play better. The man's mouth dropped, and I said into my microphone without thinking - "Oh! You need to apologize for saying that to him! You'll discourage him." I Love people and I felt hurt for this couple. The leader looked at me with a how-dare- you- look – and sneeringly said, "He's a musician, he KNOWS what I meant. He can handle it. Can't you-" and stared at the man and wife.

I knew in my heart something serious had happened. The next Sunday at the end of the worship time, the Holy Spirit said to me again, "If you walk into a church and areconsistently bruised for their iniquities, you are free to go."

Ah ha! I got it this time because the action-reaction example at the worship practice the week before was clearly displayed in my remembrance. This time I stepped down off the platform in complete Peace, Love, and assurance, picked up my Bible and coat, walked down the isle, out the sanctuary doors, and out of the church's front doors without looking back. I stopped there and realized my husband and children were still inside and asked the Lord shall I drive home or wait here for them? To my amazement He sent them all out to me in a few minutes- they were looking for me, and with no explanation needed, we all drove home in His Peace and Love.

The worship leader was also the pastor. He told me a week later when I went in to an appointment to say goodbye that when he saw me walk down that isle and out that he knew something very important had happened and he was so upset he could hardly remember his sermon.

One by one the pastor's family was rejected, also found to be imperfect, and unacceptable. Then it was he himself that was on the line and forced out. He and his family has since realized and received the Truth of God's Mercy and Grace, and act and react according to this being the Lord's Standard, not condemnation, judgment and rejection. Redemption abounds, and they have gone on to pastor a wonderful church of God's Love and Grace.

I went on to receive the revelation of the Already Completed Work of Jesus' Cross and how to apply it in prayer and receive/release the Fullness of Jesus, the Fullness of the GodHead Bodily, In us, to live now in these earthen vessels as it is in Heaven.

Christ is being formed in all of us, the Hope of Glory, till we come to full stature In Christ, Gal.4:19, Col.1:27, Eph.4:13. For Christ and the Kingdom of God's sake.

Please send us your result of putting your bruises, iniquity patterns, and un-Christ-like reactions into Jesus' Already Completed Work, a revelation, word, or testimony, quote, humor, or poem.

Word Study:

Ps.119:30,"The entrance of thy Words gives Light; it gives understanding to the simple."

I have said to look up your word for the word study in the dictionary. An old Webster's is a good one. Not most of the new ones. They do not have the scriptural interpretation of the words in most of the new dictionaries. My old hardcover one is from the early 60's. Online or a used Bookstore would be places to look for one.

Words are wonderful gifts God gives us to communicate. We need to remember and be thankful for them. Remember Helen Keller, she had to work so very hard to communicate, whereas it comes so easy for us and is easy to take for granted. I loved words as a kid and tried to learn a new word a day as a teen. I had a cold one time and could not speak or sing, and I remember the pent up frustration inside me of not being able to communicate as usual and writing something was so arduous. You too? In all things give thanks, huh.

Let's look up "Blood" this time. It is a life giving word. It is a beautiful word.

Helpful Links for study when you are ready

Below are two direct links to a great Bible Search Program Home Page and a specific search page. You can go there to search the "word" out for the Word Study section. Print out what list comes up on the screen for you. Either click on EDIT up at top left, then click on PRINT, then OK on the picture of a printer.

Another way to print is: right click on your mouse, click on PRINT out of the list shown, then OK on the picture of the printer. Make sure your Printer is turned on and there is paper in it. Click below on the direct link when you are ready to search for the word "blood".

www.StudyLight.org

<http://biblesources.bible.com/keywordsearch.php>

You can 'search' here in many types of Bibles. You pick which one from the pop up list. Check whether you want to search the Old Testament, or New, or both. And GO. This is so exciting. There is infinite learning here.

There are even Bibles to download for easy use offline on your computer. We have one to put on our website soon. I am explaining all this in detail because many people are new to working on their computer.

If you have your own computer program with a word search section to it, use that.

Or, if not, you can use a CONCORDANCE at home to search quickly, or check the back of your Bible to see if a concordance is in there. Study Bibles are a great gifts. If you have a read only type Bible, consider a good Study Bible. I have friends who do this at lunchtime at work.

BLOOD: the red viscid fluid, made up of cells and plasma, which circulates in the body of people and animals. It carries the nutrients to, and wastes away from, the tissues.

Remember that the natural reflects the spiritual, Rom.1:20. Think about the above definition in the spiritual sense...

Scripture says the "Life" is in the Blood, Lev.17:11. We see that above it circulates and brings Life. It also cleanses away the sick, dark, unclean wastes of lack from the tissues of the body, the result of the lack of Jesus in us. It also cleanses out the clean byproducts left after the body has properly digested, assimilated the nutrients, and eliminates the used food for its health and life.

Animal sacrifices of blood were made for atonement of sin.

Abel's blood "cried out" to God from the ground after Cain killed him, Gen.4:10. He "cried" to point his finger of blame and shame and justice for his death stolen by his brother Cain. The world was not under the Blood of Jesus as yet. Able's spirit "cried" out in self pity and out of his own will and devises.

But the Blood of Jesus "speaks better things." Heb.12:24.

Jesus' sacrificial Blood Speaks better things of His Better Life Covenant, Heb.Ch.8-10, into our hearts and bears witness to (He plants seed thoughts) better things of His boundless Mercy (Forgiveness & Love) and Grace. 1Jn.5:8. Fullness of Grace and Truth comes to us by Jesus Christ and of His Fullness we have all received, Grace for Grace, Jn.1:17,15.

The Word and the Holy Spirit works together by Grace.

Share with others All Good Things God gives you and does for you and is to you. Bear witness to Christ- in -the- form of Christian people you meet, confirm and support, speak Life and Love and Light of Jesus into others in prayer and speaking and whatever means He inspires you, confess your faults to one another to be flushing away wastes and be healed by putting them all over into Jesus' Already Completed Work, and Receive(partake), Receive, Receive - more and more of Jesus each day.

Look up more references on Blood in the New Testament in your Concordance. Put the one that jumps out at you on your refrigerator or on a sticky paper on your car dashboard.

Or, you could try a Google or Msn computer search.

Oh, this is good stuff! Our Life is in the Blood of Jesus and His Blood is in our veins, and it speaks to us. Then we will see and know better how to react according to God's Higher Will and Way. Pray for His Blood to speak reconciliation, healing, love...good things - into the heart of whoever the Lord brings to your mind today (maybe start with your Mother) and watch transformation and redemption happen.

Prayer / needs

Refresh the realization of the saints of the precious privilege of Communion. To treat it as new and wonderful each time; not as old hat, we been there, done that, give us something new attitude. SonLight Be! In our understanding today, in Jesus Name, concerning the Blood of Jesus, the already laid Foundation of Jesus and The Already Completed Work of His Cross, and that we are complete In Him, Col.2:9-10. Release the Truth He has shown you around the world to the Body of Christ- to whosoever will receive. The Holy Spirit and His Angels will carry the prayer.
